

Certification of Funds for International Applicants:

Before Certificates of Admission and Eligibility (Form I-20 for an F-1 visa and DS-2019 for a J-1 visa) can be issued, international students must document financial resources adequate to meet the full costs of educational and living expenses.

Two documents are required: (1) An Affidavit of Support below and (2) an original, current-dated (no more than 9 months prior to start date), statements of account from a bank or other financial institution.

Photocopies and faxes are not acceptable. FINANCIAL DOCUMENTS WILL NOT BE RETURNED TO YOU, so obtain duplicate original documents for your visa application. Statements of account must be in English or accompanied by certified English translations, report balances in U.S. dollars, and be on official bank letterhead or business forms. Account holders other than the applicant must be identified, and the relationship indicated.

Single students awarded assistantships and fellowships by Rutgers generally satisfy the financial certification requirements for admission. Any dependents accompanying an admitted student will require additional certification of funds.

Recipients of awards must provide the original award letter, with a certified English translation if necessary, indicating the terms and conditions of the award and the total amount of annual support in U.S. dollars. Financial documentation must be received in satisfactory form reporting sufficient funds. Additional documentation may be required at the discretion of the admissions office.

For the first full year of study, available funds on account must be certified in the minimum amounts specified below for the year 2010 (amounts may vary and are subject to increases). For the second and subsequent years necessary to complete the degree program, you must indicate the source(s) of projected funds to support your study. For this purpose, you must show the amounts and sources of funding below. Only Rutgers support already committed may be cited. Sponsors pledging support must commit to the minimum amounts cited for each year.

Send the Affidavit of Support and certification of funds with the application. Even if the department recommends admission, financial documentation is required before official documents, including admission certificate and I-20 form, can be issued.
