Certificate of Funds: Instructions

F-1 Degree Students:

- Must show funding for one academic year or until the end of their program end date (whichever is shorter)

J-1 Degree Students:

- Must show funding until the program end date on their DS-2019

General Guidelines:

- All expenses outlined in this document are estimates based on the current year's costs. Tuition and on-campus living expenses typically increase by an average of 3-5% annually. All amounts are subject to change without prior notice.
- Funding documents must be no more than 6 months old. They can be in the form of bank statements (checking or savings account), award letters, employment letters (including TA, GA offer letters) etc. Documents must be in English or have an official English translation.
- Estimated living expenses remain the same for all F-1 and J-1 students, regardless of whether the student is living on campus or off campus
- Funding total for Rutgers Graduate students is based on a 24-credit load registration per academic year and living expenses for one year
  - To calculate tuition and fees per credit, divide the total by 24
- Funding total for Mason Gross School of the Arts students varies by program:
  - MM is based on 18 credit load registration per academic year and living expenses for one year
  - DMA is based on 12 credit load registration per academic year and living expenses for one year
  - AD is based on 10 credit load registration per academic year and living expenses for one year
- Living Expenses: to calculate living expenses per month for all programs, divide by 12
- Dependents: Additional funds must be shown for spouses and children
  - $5,000 additional for spouse
  - $4,000 additional per child
